Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 3, to Tuesday November 6, 1750.

St. James's, November 6.

THE King landed on Sunday about Noon at Harwich, and arrived here, in perfect Health, God be praised, between Ten and Eleven o'Clock the same Evening.

Naples, Oct. 20. The King, to provide against the frequent Disputes which arise between the Landlords and Tenants of Houses in this City, caused an Edict to be published on the 6th Instant, whereby he prescribes a Rule to prevent such Disputes; and commits the Cognizance, and sole Decision of them, to the Criminal Court of this City. The King's Xebeck the St. Anthony, who took the Tunesian Xebeck off Cape Spartivento, after an Engagement of four Hours and an half, had but two Men killed and five wounded in that Engagement; whereas the Tunesian had eleven Men killed, and several wounded. This Government, on Information that a large Gang of Banditti greatly infest the Campaign of the Camaldoli, &c. has ordered a Detachment of 30 Men from this City, and two Parties of Bayliffs of the Commissary of the Campaign, in pursuit of them.

Rome, Oct. 24. On the 10th Instant, Cardinal Mellini sent back to Vienna the Cabinet Courier which he had received on the 3d from that Court, relating to the Affair of Aquileja. Last Week arrived in this City the Chevalier d'Andreda, Minister from the King of Portugal to the Pope; and on the 12th he had a Conference with Cardinal Valenti, Secretary of State. The Cardinals Portocarrero, Cavalchini, Lante, Passionei, Ruffo, and many others, are set out for their respective Country Seats, agreeable to the Leave they had obtained of the Pope.

Florence, Oct. 26. We have received Advice from Lucca, that on the 11th Instant, the Duke and Prince Hereditary of Modena, in Company with the Marquess de Maulevrier, Minister Plenipotentiary from the French King to the Duke of Parma, was arrived in that City. They were entertained at the Expence of the Publick, and lodged at the Palace of the Marques Manzoni, which was purposely prepared for their Reception. On the 15th, after they had observed the Curiosities of that City, and the Country Seats about it, they set out on their Return to Modena. The same Day was celebrated here with the usual Solemnity, the Feast St. Theresia, whose Name the Empress bears; on this Occasion, the Foreign Ministers, the Nobility, and Military Officers, appeared at Court in their rich Habits, many of whom M. de Richecourt entertained at Dinner. In the Evening the usual Fireworks were played off, and the Cannon of the Castles were fired; and a Ball was given at the Theatre, with Liberty for Masking. On the 18th died, after a long Illness, M. de Givrecourt, Colonel of the Lorrain Regiment of Foot Guards; and the next Day he was buried with great Military Pomp.

Stockholm, Oct. 27. The King has appointed the Baron de Rohler, to be Major General of Horse; and Baron Roskull, and M. Gryperwald, to be Captains of Horse. We have received Advice from Wexio, a small Town in the Province of Smaland, that on the 15th Instant a Fire broke out in that Town, which burnt with so much Violence, that in a few Hours it entirely reduced to Ashes the principal Church, and several of the adjacent Houses. Yesterday the Prince Succesor, with the Princess his Spouse, and all their Family, came from their Summer Palace of Drottingholm, to reside here during the Winter.

Vienna, Oct. 31. The Sentence of the Aulick Council, in the Affair of Hohenloe, having had the Emperor's Approbation, is at last made publick; the Substance of which is as follows, viz. The Aulick Council declare all the Steps which have been taken by the Evangelick Body, in this Matter, void, and of no Effect; they condemn the Princes of Hohenloe in the Whole, and in every particular Point of their Pretensions; they confirm the former Imperial Rescript given against them, and cut them off absolutely from all Right of Appeal, or Revision; and the Execution of this Sentence is recommended to the Princes, Directors of the Circle of Franconia. There is however a Liberty berty left, to the Princes of Hohenloe, if they have any new Point of Law to offer, to do it by new, and separate Proofs; but which shall, in no Degree, affect the present Judgment and Sentence of the Court.

Turin, Oct. 31. The King and all the Royal Family continue still at the Venerie. It is generally believed that the Dutchess is with Child, but it has not yet been publicly declared. His Majesty has broke a Corsican Regiment which he had in his Service; it was composed only of Deserters, who were continually deserting again when any Opportunity offered. The Regiment was very far from being compleat when it was broke; and what remained of them, are sent into Sardinia, to be formed into independent Companies.

Coruna, Nov. 2. At La Grana in the Harbour of Ferol, where three Men of War, of 70 Guns each, were riding at their Moorings, all disarmed, and lately careened, having only their Boatswains with a few Boys on Board to take Care of them, viz. the Invincible, Vencedor, and Tyger, with four small Ships called Packets or Advice Boats, a Fire broke out in the Fore-castle or Cook-Room of the Invincible, on the 30th past, about One o'Clock in the Morning, which burnt with such Violence, that it soon consumed and parted her Cables, and put her adrift, and then bearing down with the Tide, she immediately run her Head close up to the Vencedor's Stern, and continued grappled there so long, as to set her also quite in a Flame, and soon burnt down her Stern, which disentangled the Invincible, and then she drove very near the Tyger; but the People having by that Time cut her loose from her Moorings, as likewise the four Advice Boats, they got her and them near the Shore, so as to be just clear of the Fire-ship, as the Invincible might justly be termed. Had there been much Wind, as it was then Southerly, it would have drove her close up to the Store-houses, and soon consumed them, and entirely destroyed the whole Arsenal at La Grana; but the Current drove her a little above to the Eastward of them, and fixed her on Shore against the Rocks, where she could do no farther Damage; and the Vencedor continued burning at her Moorings till late the next Day, when she was reduced to the Water's Edge. They were both fine new Ships, built at the Havanna, and came Home with the first Flota that arrived from thence after the late War. The Boatswains of the two Ships immediately fled to a Convent; but Soldiers were soon sent to take them from thence; though it is not believed that either of them were guilty, but only so much frightened as scarcely to know what they did. Nobody can yet tell how the Fire at first happened.

Copenhagen, Nov. 2. The King came hither last Thursday from Jagtburg, where he had been for some Days taking the Diversion of Hunting. His Majesty has conferred the important Post of Grand Bailiff of Zealand, and Bailiff of Roschild, vacant by the Death of the late Chamberlain Vander Luhe, on M. Holger Scheel.

Frankfort, Nov. 7. Prince William of Hesse Cassel, and Prince Frederick his Son, who have been here for some Days, are set out from hence for Hanau. We learn from Mannheim, that the Protestants, who are settled in the Palatinate, have sent Deputies to the Count de Warrensfleben, Minister from the States General of the United Provinces, to beg his Interest with the Elector Palatine, in order to obtain some Redress of their Religious Grievances; and that this Minister had promised them to take every favourable Opportunity of employing his good Offices with his Electoral Highness on their Behalf.

Cologne, Nov. 9. This Morning the Count de Hohenzollern was unanimously elected Sub-Dean of the Metropolitan Church of this City; and after the Ceremonies were over, the new Sub-Dean gave an elegant Entertainment to the whole Chapter; at which the Archbishop of Laodicea, and the Pope's Nuncio, were present.

Hague, Nov. 12. On Tuesday last Prince Louis of Brunswick Wolfenbuttel was declared Field Marshal of the Troops of this Republick. We hear from Loo, that the Departure of their Serene Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Orange for this Place, remains fixed for the 17th Instant. Yesterday the States of Holland and Westfrizeland opened their Assembly, and To-day continued their Deliberations.

This Day is published,

Dedicated to the Right Honourable Philip Earl of Chesterfield.

Correctly printed in a neat Pocket Volume, (Price Bound Three Shillings,)

LES MOEURS; or, MANNERS.

Accurately Translated from the French. Wherein the Principles of Morality, or Social Duties, viz. Pity, Wisdom, Prudence, Fortitude, Justice, Temperance, Love, Friendship, Humanity, &c. &c. are described in all their Branches; the Obligations of them shown to consist in our Nature, and the Enlargement of them strongly enforce'd. Here Parents are taught, that, giving Birth to a Child, scarcely entitles them to that honourable Name, without a strict Discharge of Parental Duties; the Friend will find, there are a Thousand other Decorums, besides the doing of a Favour, to entitle him to the tender Name of Friend; and the Good-natur'd Man will find, he ought to extend that Quality beyond the Bounds of his own Neighbourhood or Party.

The Whole wrote in a Manner entirely New and Entertaining, and enliven'd with real Characters, drawn from Life, and fitted to instill the Principles of all social Virtues into tender Minds.

Printed for W. Johnston at the Golden Ball in St. Paul's Church Yard.

THOMAS

THOMAS OSBORNE,
BOOKSELLER, in GRAY'S-INN,

Having purchased the valuable Libraries of
EDWARD WEBBE, Esq;
Counsellor at Law,

ALEXANDER DAVIE, Esq;
Late of Sidney-College, Cambridge,
FRANCIS CARRINGTON, Esq;
The Hon. Lady MARY WORSLEY,
And several others,

With one in particular, the most considerable of them all, the Name of the Proprietor is not permitted to be published.

THESE several Libraries united are so numerous, that they amount to near One hundred thousand Volumes and Prints, so that there is a Necessity of dividing the Catalogue in Two Parts; among the Rest are,

A Set of the Journals of the House of Lords, in 105 Volumes, MS. in Folio, complete to the End of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, examined by the Originals.

A Set of Classics in Usum Delphini.

A complete Set of the Classics cum Notis Variorum, in 176 Volumes, bound in a very elegant Manner.

A complete Set of the Elzevir Classics, bound in Morocco.

A large Collection of Prints, by the most eminent Masters.

A great Number of Books and Manuscripts on Vellum, finely illuminated; and in particular, the famous Mozarabes or Missale of Toledo, according to the Rule of St. Isidore. This is the Missale which stood the Trial of the Flames against the Roman Missale, and was therefore preferred before all other Missales, and may be said to be one of the greatest Curiosities in the World; a farther Account is given of it in this Catalogue.

A complete Set of Common and Civil Law, and almost every thing that may be said to be curious in polite Literature may be seen in this Catalogue.

The First Part will be published, with the lowest Prices fixed, some Time in November; and timely Notice of the Day of Sale will be given, which will be some Time in December, and will continue selling till Lady-Day, 1751.

And the Second Part of this Catalogue will be published some Time in April; and will continue selling, with what remains unsold of the First Part, till the First of August, 1751.

Catalogues may be had at all the most eminent Booksellers in Great Britain and Ireland, France, Holland, Italy, Spain, Germany, &c. and at the Place of Sale, Price One Shilling. Where may be had, Money for any Library or Parcel of Books, Prints, or Manuscripts.
